Student Sample: Grade 2, Argument (Opinion)

This opinion piece about a work of literature was produced in class.

_Owl Moon_

When you go owling
you don't need words, or worm or any thing, but hope. This is the book of _Owl Moon_.
This book is written by Jane Yolen. I like that phrase because The boy was happy because he got to go owling and he's been wonted to go owling for a long time and he finally got to go.

When other kids are happy that makes me happy. I like it because it makes me feel good because you don't haft
to have words to go owling but you haft to have hope to see an owl.

  - This piece illustrates the writer’s understanding that capital letters are used in a title, that the pronoun I should be capitalized, and that sentences should begin with a capital letter. The title of the book is underlined, and most words are spelled correctly. The use of the comma and the apostrophe is not consistent, but all sentences end with periods.
Student Sample: Grade 2, Narrative

This narrative was produced in class, and the writer likely received support from the teacher.

My first tooth is gone

I recall one winter night. I was four. My sister and I were running down the hall and something happened. It was my sister and I had run right into each other. Boy! did we cry. But not only did I cry, my tooth was bleeding. Then it felt funny. Then plop! There it was lying in my hand. So that night I put it under my pillow and in the morning I found something. It was not my tooth it was two dollars. So I ran down the hall, like I wasn't supposed to, and showed my mom and dad. They were suprised because when they lost teeth the only thing they got is 50¢.
