Fifth Grade
Language Scope and Sequence

The Language standards listed in the table above are intended to be reinforced within the writing unit so that the Language Standards are taught within the context of student writing and not in isolation. Additionally, the standards provide a focus for what students will be held accountable in their writing for purposes of editing their authentic work.

Skills, marked with an asterisk (*) in Language standards 1-3, are particularly likely to require continued attention in higher grades as they are applied to increasingly sophisticated writing and speaking.
Fifth Grade
Language Scope and Sequence

Please note that not all the Common Core Language Standards have been assigned to the Language Scope and Sequence, but will need to be reinforced orally in conversation, during shared, or guided writing activities, and weekly grammar activities.

The standards below will need “additional support” because they aren’t given enough attention in Treasures or Tesoros.

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
   1.e. Use correlative conjunctions (e.g., either/or, neither/nor).
2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
   2.c. Use a comma to set off the words yes and no (e.g., Yes, than you), to set off a tag question from the rest of the sentence (e.g., It’s true, isn’t it?), and to indicate direct address (e.g., Is that you, Steve?).
   2.d Use underlining, quotation marks, or italics to indicate titles of works.
